March Meeting Recaps

The first meeting started off with 13 for dinner. Fifty folks signed in for a fabulous meeting with brief presentations by Jerry Eller, Mel Borofsky, Bill Johnston, Tom Hart, Josh Furman, Francis Ferguson, Steve Patrick and Jim Archbold. The auction sold 30 lots for $333. Thank you to everyone that made this night a great success.

The second meeting started off with 12 for dinner. The balmy night brought 49 club members out to participate in the cried auction. Thank you to, Team David, Jim Archbold, Robert Fisher and A. Stephen Patrick for making the auction process problem free. The cried auction sold 45 of 65 lots for a total of $1,040.50! This was one of our higher sales for a cried auction.

First Quarter Birthdays

Thank you to Scot Cornwall, Mimi Tompkins, Robert Fisher, Mike Schumacher and Carlos Guffain who all brought food and/or beverage in for the enjoyment of the membership to acknowledge those born in the first quarter of the year. Hal Gear won the birthday door prize with an exact guess of 17.

Picnic Spring 2019

Make sure you have the date of April 13th on your schedule for the annual picnic. We will have an added attraction this year with the attendance of the folks from Birds of Prey with some of their birds for viewing and interaction. Place the date on your schedule and block out the hours of 2pm until 5pm. We actually start to arrive and setup starting at 1pm. Hot dogs, hamburgers and roasted corn will be on the menu. Bring a dish to share. Come one come all — and enjoy the food and fellowship.

Sign up sheet is full. Show hours are 10-3, in the Oak Room at the Marks Street Center. There are eight booth holders. Please support this local show.

The club shirts are available at $20. Show your pride in being a member of the CFSC and you will get a pocket (on the shirt of course) as a no-charge add on! We now have the most popular sizes in stock. Contact the Editor before the meeting night, as the shirts are kept off site.

Writers Are Welcome — and Needed!

Please consider submitting an article for publication as my bit bucket is growing rather empty. This current incarnation of the club newsletter is now in year 14 of publication. Your support is needed.

President's Message by Francis Ferguson Giving Back

From my perch in the philatelic world I am often asked to do things. Most of the time, a simple “yes” is given and the request moves forward to achieve whatever the requester wants. I have always felt that it is a privilege to be involved and my service to the philatelic community is part and parcel with what I have agreed to do.

I have learned in recent years that the word “no” has to be used at times to preserve my sanity and well being. While this is not my default mode and it often makes me uncomfortable to say, simple logic says there are only so many hours in the day/week/month/year.

My vocation keeps me very busy with a good deal of travel that involves over night stays fairly frequently. My avocation has to live within the perimeters of my life. If only I had more hours to be a collector and actually put things in my albums. Instead those new acquisitions sit in my “in-take box” until time and energy allows.

Because of all that, I am very aware when I ask someone to do something — of the time suck that can occur when doing a project that should take maybe two hours and instead turns into an all day slog. My appreciation and admiration for those that can complete that task is immeasurable.

This came home to me in spades today as I started to work on the article for Insert C — the strange Transport cover. I figured I could bang out a readable piece in an hour — instead it took nearly four hours as I kept stumbling across pieces of information that I felt were pertinent to the story I was trying to tell.

I am happy with the way the article turned out — however I have now come to realize that the length of the article could have been much longer if I had incorporated more of the information I found. I tried to find a good balance — and hoped I have presented a cohesive article for your reading pleasure.

Truth be told, I very much enjoy doing research and writing on philatelic topics — it is fun!

Serendipity — XLIX by The Editor

What to do?

Sometimes something rather radical has to happen. This odd cover with a tied Washington/Franklin 2 cent coil is somewhat distressed. The cut edge of the cover on the left side seems to be rather strange with the tied-to-cover stamp hanging off into space. It is perforated 10 and dated January 18th of 1917. The portion of the back of the stamp that is visible shows no ink, thus making it a rotary stamp. The Scott's catalog shows this as being numbers 453/454/455 (watermarked) with issue dates of 07.1914 to 07.1915. This usage is late, but still possible. The second option are numbers 491/492 (no watermark) which show an issue date of 11.1917 and 01.1917.

Since the values for those stamps ranges from $1 to $800 further investigation is warranted. I will be lifting the stamp off the cover as that is the only way to determine the watermark on the stamp. Does anyone want to make any wagers as to what will be found? The cover is owned by our club member John Latter and I have obtained his permission to lift the stamp.
